

Thursday, November 8th

- Robin Fallscheer, California Dept. of Fish and Wildlife – Response of Rare Species of Fawn Lilies to Even-aged Silviculture
- Bobette Jones, US Forest Service – Aspen and Meadow Restoration Treatments and Community Response
- Karen Pope, US Forest Service – Mountain amphibians and meadows
- Mallory Bedwell, Washington State University – The state of environmental DNA: its uses, ongoing research, and an example of its application in detecting aquatic amphibians
- Ted Weller, US Forest Service – Habitat Needs of Forest-associated Bats in Northern California
- Kent Laudon, California Dept. of Fish and Wildlife – Who Let the Dogs Out (and what are we going to do about it)?

Friday, November 9th

- Ona Alminas, California Dept. of Fish and Wildlife – New CDFW Scientific Collecting Permit Regulations and Online Application Portal
- USFWS Representative (TBD), US Fish and Wildlife Service – Update on California Spotted Owl Status Evaluation
- Bob Carey, US Fish and Wildlife Service – Northern Spotted Owl Recovery Plan, Implementation in Northeastern California
- Joe Croteau, California Dept. of Fish and Wildlife – Landscape Scale Permitting and Agreements

Above list includes confirmed speakers and topics. Detailed agenda and abstracts forthcoming.

Please contact Kori Hutchison at: sac.shasta@gmail.com with any questions.